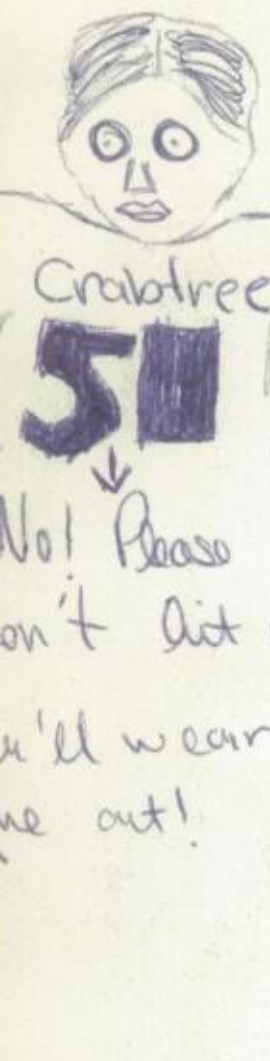
Lloyder -

Do you Remember -

- Horseback riding in a tornado?
- Going in the ditch and you hiding behind the trees
- Getting home so late that it's light out.
- Riding horse to Geneva and getting loose on the way.
- Getting picked up and paying 50 bucks
- Saying I love you!
- Sitting in the machine shed all night. The new horse.
- Your old car
- Wearing each other out (especially me!) (I'll never be the same)
- ME?



I've been with you so much in the past few months that I've said almost everything and anything.

We've been through alot and I'm sure there will be many more experiences in the future.

You're a great and beautiful guy. You're FANTASTIC!

Take care of your little red car + that Special chick (whoever that is). I know you'll find one someday if you already haven't (just messin' around).

IN MEMORY...

A yearbook is a time of remembrance. It's a time for students to look through the many pages and remember the activities, events, and familiar faces dealing with the past year. Most of these memories are happy, unfortunately one of these is sad.

Patrick Thomas Donovan, known to his friends as "Pat", passed away on April 24, 1974. He certainly left an empty spot in everyone's heart.

It isn't easy to accept death, especially Pat's. He was always a happy-go-lucky, cheerful fellow who brightened up the hall or classroom whenever he was around.

That's exactly why people will always remember him. For he was Pat, a friend to everyone; no one will ever forget him.

I loved my friend

He went away from me

There's nothing more to say

The poem ends,

Soft as it began--

I loved my friend.

FOOTBALL

Team Proves to Be "Awfully Brave!"

"This was a fine year with many outstanding seniors giving us fine leadership all year," Coach Tracy stated after the 1973 football season had come to a close. The Ellendale-Geneva Raiders ended their season with a 7-2 overall record, scoring 231 points and allowing only 38 all year.

As a Gopher Conference team, the Raiders tied for second with their only losses to New Richland and Medford.

Four gridders were chosen to the All-Conference team, Stuart Kubat and Ron Randall as second year members and Max DeRaad and Mike Marcus as first.

The team voted Stuart Kubat as best defensive player and Dave Lieberg as best offensive player.

Time And Effort Spent Toward Obtaining Winning Teams

Girls' sports started this year with basketball. The girls worked hard, staying after many nights for practice. Although much work was put into it, the girls didn't come out on top. As the year progressed, the girls gained much experience even though they didn't win a game.

New Season Brings New Coach

The Ellendale-Geneva cagers ended their season with an overall record of 11 wins and 7 defeats. The Raiders tied for third place in the Gopher Conference play with an 8-6 record. The standings do not tell the whole story. Coach Mr. Pelzl felt that the team played well and showed true team spirit.

The cagers scored 985 points for an average of 54.7 points per game. Opponents scored 850 points for an average of 47.2 per game.

Dave Lieberg and Randy Kaiser were chosen to the 1974 All-Conference team.

Future Looks Promising

The Ellendale-Geneva "B" squad basketball team finished play with a fairly successful season, an 11-6 overall record and 8-6 in Gopher conference play.

Although the team's record was not outstanding, their defensive average was. They allowed their opponents only 38.6 points per game, second only to undefeated Medford in conference play.

Six sophomores and seven freshmen contributed to the success of this team. The sophomores could add much to the success of the varsity next year.

The "B" squad wrestlers finished the season with a 7-2 record and with a 4-2 record in the conference, losing only to New Richland and Waterville.

The young squad, consisting mainly of 9th and 10th graders, wrestled all year, showing the drive to win, the will to work hard, and the ability to never give up.

All Team Members Share the Action

Although the Ellendale-Geneva wrestlers do not always receive the credit they deserve, they are a very important part of the Raider sports program.

Two senior members were named All-Conference this year. They were Mike Marcus and Max DeRaad. Mike won the 155-lb. class championship at the Gopher Conference wrestling tournament and Max placed 2nd in the 180-lb. class.

Tight, Close Games Challenge Players

The Ellendale-Geneva baseball team completed their 1974 season with 9 victories and 8 losses when they were defeated by Blooming Prairie in West Sub-District II play.

In the opening District tournament game against Alden, the Raiders won by a 5-1 score. In second round play, Blooming Prairie defeated the team by a 6-2 score. The Raiders were leading by a 2-1 score going into the bottom of the sixth inning when the Blossoms scored 5 runs to win.

Scott Christensen and Steve Vanden Heuvel were named to the Gopher Conference "All-Conference Team" this year.

Individual Efforts Vital for Success

The Ellendale-Geneva track team closed a very successful season by qualifying five members for the State Meet. The thinclads edged out Elgin-Millville by a 28-25 score winning the Region I, Class "B" track meet.

The State Meet was held at St. Cloud June 7th and 8th. The sprint medley team of Dave Lieberg, Dave Dunn, Gordy Carroll, and Curt Burshem finished 4th setting a new school record. Also participating at the State Meet were Dave Dunn in the 180-yard low hurdles and Dave Lieberg in the shotput.

The 1974 track record for the team was as follows: 1st in Albert Lea J.V. triangular; 1st in Owatonna J.V. quadrangular; 1st in New Richland Relays; 2nd in Blooming Prairie quadrangular; 1st in Byron Invitational against 28 schools; 2nd in Northwood Invitational; 1st in Gopher Conference meet; 1st in District II meet; 1st in Region I meet.

Volleyball Team Wins Hayfield Invitational

Girls' Volleyball has become a very popular sport at Ellendale. With 40 girls participating this year, they were bound to win. Losing their first game to New Richland did not discourage them as they went on successfully to win the Hayfield Invitational Volleyball Tournament. The team brought home the trophy and are looking forward to a promising future with the help of school spirit behind them.

The track team was not so successful this year, although they gained valuable experience. Sandy Larson was the only one to advance to the Regional Track Meet. The whole team enjoyed competing more as an individual and hope for good years to come.

Cheering Initiates Fan Participation

A cheerleader's job is to promote school spirit and to set good relationships between schools. Besides leading the crowds at the games, a cheerleader encourages game attendance, makes signs, and puts in a lot of long, hard hours working up cheers and routines. Pennants of the Gopher Conference schools were started early in the year by the A-squad cheerleaders but conflicts arose and the pennants weren't finished by the end of the season. The A-squaders also worked up a new fight song that was used at tournaments.

This year the school had one of its best B-squads. The girls worked hard and used a lot of new ideas. The future years looks promising for EHS cheerleaders.

Yearbook Captures Life Style

This year's annual staff was concerned with building for the future. Senior editors Julie Yanke and Jo Ribbe instructed Sandy Larson and Sue Brown in the finer points of writing copy, cropping pictures and calming Mr. Parr down when deadlines weren't made. This year's annual is four pages longer and contains color pictures on the endsheets. Good response to ad sales helped keep the cost increase to students minimal.

Hours of preparation went into each issue of the RAIDER READER. Each editor racked her brains out to think of new and appealing articles. A new feature of the paper was the "Perils of Dating." Each month, some lucky couple had the honor of their names inserted in a story about an embarrassing situation on a typical date.

The Ellendale-Geneva High School Band is made up of students from grades 8-12. One trimester of credit is earned each year for active participation in band.

The band appears at various athletic events and concerts. Ellendale had the privilege of sponsoring the District Music Contest this year. The band received a 3-star rating at the contest. Several members of the band also participated in the annual District II Solo and Ensemble Contest. During the summer months, the band presents weekly concerts in Ellendale and Geneva. The band participates in several parades including the North Iowa Band Festival Parade in Mason City.

Mr. Skroch had the misfortune of suffering from a back injury which caused him to be absent from band for about two months. During this time, the band experienced two different types of directing by principal Mr. James and substitute Mr. David Smith.

Feeling Reflected Through Songs

The Jr. and Sr. high choruses this year proved to be bigger and better than ever before. They not only sang but they really felt the expression of their songs and enjoyed singing. They performed for all the concerts during the year. In April, the Sr. Chorus competed in the District II Music contest. Unfortunately, they didn't receive a star but Director Faith Risser felt they did well and she was very proud of them.

Two small groups, a girls' ensemble and a boys' ensemble, were also within the Sr. Chorus. They sang for many events and competed in the District II Solo and Ensemble contest.

Projects Promote Goodwill

The FFA had an interesting and exciting year to say the least. Many new faces in Vo-Ag have added to the pool of talent which contributes to many successful projects.

The highlight of the year was a $1700 corn drive. In the past 2 years the FFA has collected over $2000 for various charities. Other accomplishments include the dairy judging team, which placed 9th in the State contest. A tree planting project with the Lions Club and FHA, the state convention, and other activities have made 1973-74 a year the FFA will long remember.

The FHA's activities this year included a number of successful projects. Activities such as "Operation Toys", tree planting, caroling, and the style show not only proved to be constructive but fun.

Satisfying a Variety of Interests

Declam has always been an individual organization although this year the number of individuals participating has increased. The advisor Mrs. Simon was glad to see a greater interest in Declam and said it was a very good year. Pam Christensen, Jo Ribbe, Janice Cornelius, and Catherine Lageson got "A" ratings and advanced from sub-district to district. All members commented that Declam is very worthwhile and lots of fun.

With the beginning of girls' athletics this year, the GRA has suffered slightly. Although they have kept up the usually activities, that include bowling, swimming, rollerskating, and attending the Twins game, time was scarce for recreational events. The girls tried and did manage to keep things going.

Art Club's First Year Proves Itself Well

A new organization for grades 7-12 was formed this year. It was the Art Club. In the earlier part of the year, they attended various places featuring art exhibits in the Cities, even though the last stop was Farrells. The rest of the year was spent meeting and working on whatever they wished in the line of art. Art Club seems like a very worthwhile organization and looks promising for the future.

This year the lettermen added on to their membership list. Due to girls' sports, there were a few female faces in the organization. To raise money the lettermen sold candy and magazines.

Hours of Practice Result in Entertainment for All

A group of eight girls make up the Ellendale-Geneva majorettes. The majorettes are seen performing at football and basketball games. The marchers lead the band in several parades. The majorettes are also featured at the summer band concerts. A lot of time and hard work is put into the routines by the girls.

Festivities Arouse Student Enthusiasm

Although there was disappointment on the football field, the homecoming festivities were marked by dauntless high spirits.

Last year's Royalty Deb Hillesheim and Tim Donovan were on hand for their last official act as reigning king and queen of 1972-73 having relinquished their crowns to Terri Jensen and Dave Lieberg, and homecoming 1973-74 was begun. Randy Kaiser, representing the Lettermen, presented the new queen with roses, followed by the Student Council's gift of charms to the queen and her court.

After a hard-fought battle on the football field Friday night, the Ellendale Raiders were defeated by the New Richland Cardinals by a score of 7-8. The dance followed the game with music provided by the "Mystics".

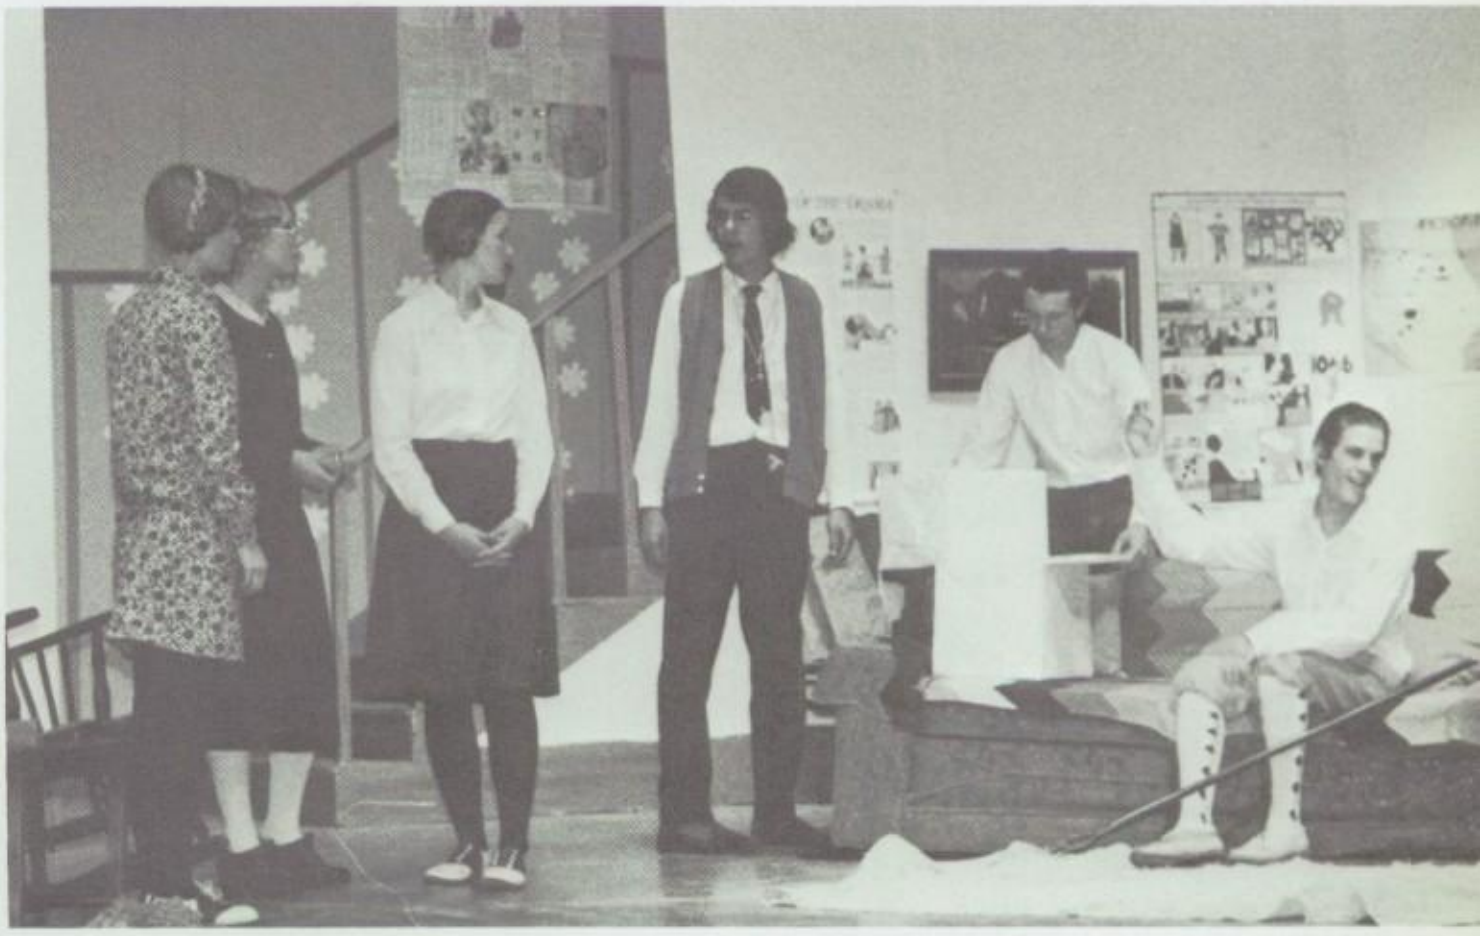
Juniors Present "Cheaper by the Dozen"

The Junior class of Ellendale-Geneva High School presented "Cheaper By the Dozen" on Thursday and Friday, November 8-9, 1973.

"Cheaper By the Dozen" was a musical comedy about a family with twelve children. Father (Dave Dunn), an efficiency expert, applies his efficiency rules to his family in hopes of raising twelve of the most intelligent, efficient children. But the children believe he's raising freaks. Anne (Lori Jorgenson) an attractive 17-year-old, especially believes this because she never has had a date. When she does finally have a date, her conservative father makes one of her brothers go along.

The play was very humorous, the 1920's costumes amusing, and the music delightful.



FAR LEFT: They are ready to call the fire department as a "fire drill" is practiced at the Gilbreth household. SPRING FESTIVAL

Valentines Replaced by "Spring Festival"

This year due to a lack of an appropriate date, the traditional Valentines coronation and dance were replaced by a Spring Festival on March 15.

At 8:30 the music began as the old royalty and all the candidates were introduced by Master of Ceremonies Mike Marcus. After a little suspense, Spencer Kubat and Pam Cornelius crowned John Kaplan and Laurie Vaith as the new Prince and Princess. Dan Donovan at that time gave up his crown to Ron Randall as the new king and Ron then placed the crown on the new Queen Pam Stokke. The royalty then reigned over the Spring Fest dance which was enjoyed by all.

Seniors Present "Meet Me in St. Louis"

The Senior Class of Ellendale-Geneva High School presented "Meet Me In St. Louis" on Friday, March 29, 1974.

The comedy took place in St. Louis during the excitement of the 1904 World's Fair. The story was based on the Smith family who receive news of Mr. Smith's (Max DeRaad) transfer to New York and the schemes to keep the family where they belong--in St. Louis.

The play proved to be very entertaining and was a success.

Times Fade Away

The Junior-Senior prom and banquet was held on May 4, 1974, at the Holiday Inn in Albert Lea.

Jon Jensen was Master of Ceremonies throughout the banquet. Other highlights of the evening were the reading of the senior class prophecy by Sue Brown and Steve Vanden Heuvel, plus a vocal selection by Ann Aronson and Sandy Larson.

After the banquet there were various activities happening before the grand march, such as clearing the tables for the dance, mothers taking pictures, and 18-year-olds trying to sneak in the bar for a "quickie."

The dance took place after the grand march with the sounds of "Sweet Dreams", which was enjoyed by all.

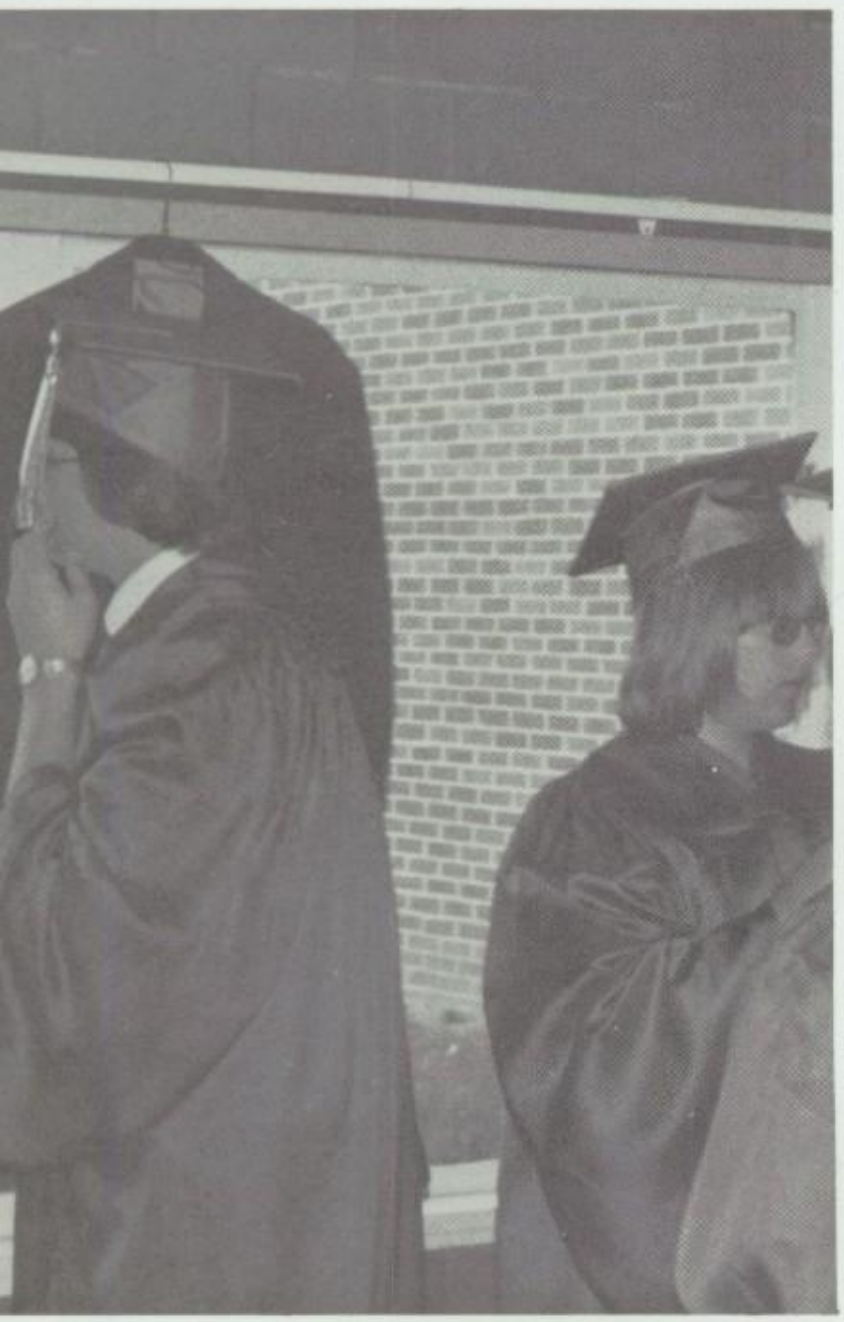
The Promise of Tomorrow



ABOVE: Keith Bengtson gazes out the window and wonders if he should really go through with it or not.

Graduation is a time of celebration and fond memories...
But most of all,
it is a time of new beginnings, a time to look forward to the promise of tomorrow...
...toward a poem that has never been written... a song that has never been sung...
an empty canvas...waiting.
The promise of tomorrow is the excitement of faraway fun places...
...and the discovery of secret, quiet places right in our own hearts.
It holds the hope of a better life for all people...
a world united...an era of true brotherhood.
The promise of tomorrow is love...
love of people and love of that certain, special someone...
...love of work, ideas and ideals...
...love of earth, sea and sky.
The promise of tomorrow is all that is good, beautiful and true...
a life time anxious for its fulfillment...
waiting for you graduate!
You are the bright, young Promise of Tomorrow.

Joy Is Not in Things; It Is in Us

The senior year is one of many lasts. It is the last year to gossip with friends in the hall at noon hour or spend time in the lounge. For many, being a senior means the sad experience of your last Homecoming, class play, Prom, and all the other high school happenings. But perhaps what is missed most will be all the friends each senior acquired throughout his high school years.

The graduating class of 1974 have grown together through the last twelve years and now are prepared to face the world ahead.

Juniors Face Many Trying Times

The year started in a series of events for the 1973-74 juniors with decorating the gym floor for the homecoming coronation ceremonies. Immediately after homecoming, tryouts were held for the annual Junior Class Play, which was to be a musical this year. The juniors had quite a bit of trouble getting started, but everything worked out great in the end. The play was a success.

The sequel for the year will be the prom, which will be a mystery to everyone due to a certain person impersonating the president. But that's what this person is famous for just as the juniors are famous for not getting things done. Everything usually works out for the best.

Individual Effort Results in Unity

The sophomores made a big step in their senior high years by ordering their class rings early enough so they didn't have to pay the ten dollar increase of gold.

They proved themselves well by building a beautiful bonfire for homecoming. To prepare for next year's prom, they raised money by selling candy.

Many of them spent the year experiencing the thrills of driving, working, and participating in the weekend festivities.

New Doors Are Opened

The freshmen this year, just as freshmen of every year, have the opportunity to participate in many extra-curricular activities. This is also the year when they can go to the lounge on any day and get a little selection in their choice of classes.

Accepting responsibility through these privileges will help to prepare them for the high school years to come.

In Between Time

Eighth grade is always a kind of in-between age. They are no longer the youngest in high school, but yet they aren't able to do alot of the things upperclassmen do. Although, most of them learn to accept that fact and wait.

Some of the various activities that take up their time will never change. Also they have more new and exciting responsibilities every day. Of course, they all have their friends, enemies, love-lives, and crushes, but then that is just a small part of growing up.

This year's seventh graders were a little bewildered on their first few days in junior high, but they adjusted rapidly. Since then they have gotten involved with Jr. GRA, Jr. Chorus, and have helped make up our C-squad sport teams. This is the first year sports have been open to the seventh grade girls. There were so many participating, they all didn't get a chance to play. Girls' sports will help them bring about changes to our school in the future.

Younger Set Learns Responsibility

The Minnesota School Safety Patrol is an organization that is made up of boys and girls over nine years of age. This organization not only helps children to arrive safely to school and home, it also helps the member of the organization learn responsibility.

Satisfactory operation of school patrols should come only after administrators, teachers, pupils, and parents have discussed and decided upon the purposes for such organizations and the goals to be reached.
